MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

For Your. Nov. 5.-The stock market this morning opened with a very moderate volume of business and a drooping tendency, athough first prices were in but few cases lower than these of last evening. Weakness in one or two stocks was soon developed, and the activity became most pronounced as prices receded. Later in the hour the market quited down and prices rallied slightly. No material improvement took place, however, and at 11 o'clock the market was dult and fairly steady at som thing better than the lowes; prices.
